

LONDON IN PANIC
OF FEAR OVER
IRISH OUTBREAK

City Becomes Armed Camp
As Authorities Anticipate Attacks.

(By the Associated Press)
LONDON, Nov. 30.—Public build- ings in London and in many of the other large cities of England were closely guarded against ap- prehended Sinn Fein attacks by heavy detachments of police and de- tectives last night.
In this city the patrol was not limited to streets but armored boats moved up and down the Thames in front of parliament buildings. With Downing street and its immediate neighborhood shut off from the rest of the city by a high fence, which was con- stantly under the eyes of uniformed men and with the parliament build- ings sentinelled, government sec- tions of London today assumed the atmosphere of an armed camp.
There is nothing to connect the Sinn Feins with the explosion of a bomb in a warehouse in Old Swan Lane, this city, early this morning, but the people of the city ascribe it to that organization. The bomb, which apparently was carried into the warehouse in a traveling bag and left there to explode by means of a time fuse, was heard over a wide part of the city and blew out the windows of buildings nearby. It started a fire but police and firemen succeeded in ex- tinguishing the flames. The street where the warehouse is situated has been closed by the police. It is a narrow thoroughfare near Lon- don bridge and contains no dwell- ing houses. Experts from Scotland Yard examined the building today.
It is claimed by police that American "gunmen" are in that city and assertion is made that men wanted in Ireland for shooting po- lice and soldiers have crossed the Irish sea to Liverpool. The finan- cial loss occasioned by Saturday's fires in Liverpool is estimated at a million pounds sterling. The killing of 15 police at Macroom, Ireland, yesterday has already been followed by reprisals by the "black and t-n."

Lions Club Passes
Resolutions for Departing Member

Among the important activities the Lions Club expressed interest in at today's luncheon was the en- dorsing of the annual Red Cross drive; passing on resolutions in be- half of Mr. Marshall, who moves to Dallas; and assisting Dr. Linscheid in entertaining the men of this district who are interested in the normal school's welfare.
Mr. Whitaker was appointed to lead the Lions Club at their next meeting, Dec. 14th. He is to ap- point such members as he wishes to furnish the entertainment. This is the date mentioned for the an- nual election of officers and all members will be interested in the outcome of the election.
Lions Club window transfer signs were given out and soon the var- ious business houses affiliated with the Lions Club will be recognized by this sign on the front window glass.

PUBLIC INVITED TO ATTEND ELKS
MEMORIAL SERVICE

Sunday, December 5th, will be Elks Memorial Day. An elaborate ceremony is being planned by the Elks of Ada, and the general public is invited to attend. The memorial services will be held in the lodge room at the Elks home on Main street.
The attention of the general public has been directed more closely to the annual memorial services of the Elks this year because of the fact that President-elect Harding will conduct the services at the Rich- mond, Va., lodge. The engagement for memorial day is the only one the president-elect has made in ad- vance of his return from Panama.
The services in the lodge room of Ada lodge will commence at 2 p. m. Elks from all parts of the coun- ty are expected for the occasion. The services will be conducted by the exalted ruler, but there will be a special speaker of the day to deliver the principal address.
The Elks new Glee Club will turn- ish the music.

Yes, Santa Claus Reads the News
Little Folks Write What They Want Xmas

Of course, Santa Claus reads the Ada Evening News. That's one way he has of keeping up with the little boys and girls whose stockings he plans to fill for Christmas.
And we want to say, too, that all the little kiddies know that Santa reads the News. They know that he reads the ads to see what he can find to bring them to make Christmas as merry as possible, and they know that if they write to him through the News he will see their letters and know what they want.
Three letters have already come in addressed to Santa Claus, and the News publishes them below so that the gay old fellow may know what their little hearts desire.
Two of these letters are from little girls who live at Coleman, Okla. Their names are Vanita and Willie Meta Hogg.
This is what Willie Meta says in her letter:
"Dear Santa Claus: Are you coming to our house this Christmas? But I know that you will come and see my lit- tle sister, Vanita, because we are good little girls. I want a big sleepy doll that has real hair and I want some candy, apples, oranges and a big coconut and some more things. Santa Claus, I love you next to mama and papa, now be sure and come to our house. I am your friend, Willie Meta Hogg."

Vanita wants the same thing her sister wants, and adds "Be sure to come see us Christmas."
Hadden Is Modest.
Hadden Smith, who lives at 130 West 13th street, also be- lieves in being early about let- ting Santa know what he wants for Christmas. And Hadden only wants a few things. Read his letter:
"Dear Santa Claus: Please bring me a train, a gun, a whistle that will blow loud, nuts, fruits, such as pples, bananas, oranges. And also bring me an American flag, a bugle, a band, a horse, a car and a see-saw and that will be all. Hadden Smith, 130 West 13th street, Ada, Okla."

Gas Companies Ask Rate
Hike of Corporation Board

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 30.—Hearings of the application of sev- eral companies in the Henryetta vicinity for an increase in gas rates, filed yesterday with the state cor- poration commissioner, will be heard on December 15th, the commissioner announced today. The petitioning companies are the Wooster Oil com- pany, the Henryetta Gas company and the Henryetta Public Service company.
The companies asked "a just and reasonable rate"; 48 cents a thou- sand for the first one hundred thou- sand cubic feet of gas; 38 cents a thousand for the next four hundred thousand and 18 cents for all over a million cubic feet. Bills would be subject to a three per cent discount if paid on or before the 10th of the month.

Towns affected are: Henryetta, Shoulters, Coalton, Dewar, Wise Camp, Spelter City and the vicinity of Henryetta.
First Baptist Prayer Meeting.
Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock will be held the mid-week prayer meeting service at the First Baptist church. At the close of the service, the ordinance of baptism will be administered.
The choir rehearsal will be held immediately at the close of the service.
We urge you to be present for these services.

LARGEST POTATO
CROP ON RECORD

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO—This year's potato crop is one of the largest on re- cord, according to W. H. Hall, Chi- cago representative of the federal bureau of markets on produce.
The same is true of cabbage, onions and apples, Mr. Hall said.
"Basing predictions on the old law of supply and demand it would reasonably be supposed," he said, "that prices this year would be substantially lower than a year ago when there was a short crop in each of these commodities."
The fine potato crop was due to growing conditions being usually good and killing frost usually late, the department of agriculture of- ficial said. There is nothing to interfere with the crop now, as potatoes are all in the bins, he added.

Fine Meeting at Christian Church.

The meeting at the Christian church last night was a success. There was a goodly attendance and excellent interest. The male quartet consisted of Messrs. Cuning, Schoonover, Walters and Emerson sang most acceptably. There was a fine spirit throughout the service, and everyone went home feeling good.
The evangelist preached on the theme, "A call to piety from Wall Street." In his introduction he read an article that appeared in the Wall Street Journal sometime since, in which a call was made by a Wall Street financier for a revival of old time religion. He said the greatest need in this country was not money and crops, but a revival of piety. From this introduction the speaker launched into a discussion of the need of real religion in the home, in the church, in the community and in the country at large. He made a plea for the reading of the Bible and prayer in the home—the establishment of the family al- tar. Jesus Christ should be in the home all the time, not simply in- vited as a guest when the preach- er comes around. We need more piety even in the church. This piety is not a long-faced piety, but a joyful piety. What the world most needs is more of the religion of Jesus Christ in the lives and hearts of men. This alone will save the world from its sorrow and its suf- fering.
The subject for tonight will be "And Peter." This is said to be one of his strongest sermons. A large audience is expected tonight. The public is most cordially in- vited. Come in good time. The meetings begin at 7:30 and close at 9:00.

BOLLING DENIES SHIPPING GRAFT

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—A de- nial that he had ever taken money for influencing the disposition of contracts or machinery by the United States shipping board, as charged by T. K. Sands, former Washington banker, coupled with a request that all of his business transactions with Sands be in- vestigated, "both for my own and my fellow citizen's sake," was made before the committee here today by R. W. Bolling, President Wilson's brother-in-law, now treas- urer of the shipping board.
Mr. Bolling told of business transactions with Sands dating back to 1916 and earlier days, out of which grew several finan- cial transactions. He told the com- mittee that his personal records were all available to its inspection. Sands had testified that he re- ceived $40,000 from the Downey Ship Building corporation for "rep- resenting" before the board, out of which he paid money to Mr. Bolling.
Poultry Exhibits
Like Barnum Show;
Bigger and Better
"Bigger and better than ever," was the way Mrs. Nettie R. Coryell, county home demonstration agent, described the community poultry shows that have been held in the county during the past two or three weeks.
"Increased interest is being man- ifested in every district," Mrs. Coryell said this morning before leav- ing for Pocomas where a poultry show will be held today.
Proper feeding, the caring for and culling of the fowls will be dis- cussed at the Pocomas show this afternoon by County Agent Houston and Mrs. Coryell. This program has been carried out at the other com- munity poultry shows.
Acme's poultry show is billed for tomorrow. The Pioneer show was conducted yesterday and similar shows at Sandlin and Valley View on Tuesday.—Chickasha Express.
City Hall at Cork Afire.
BELFAST, Nov. 30.—The city hall at Cork was set on fire this morning and reports from that city state that the Thomas Ache Sinn Fein club and the Charlotte Quay are ablaze. Much damage was done, it was stated.

LEAGUE FACING
CRITICAL PERIOD OF ITS HISTORY

Japs Won't Bring Up Race
Problem at Present Session.

(By the Associated Press)
GENEVA, Nov. 30.—Many dele- gates to the meeting of the as- sembly of the league of nations regarded the coming week as the most critical period in the history of the organization. Questions which have been settled in com- mittee by a majority vote after stubborn contests in some cases must be decided in the assembly by a unanimous vote. The only exception is in the case of the election of new members and amendments. If the assembly proves capable of agreeing without a dissenting vote on the difficult problems to be placed before it during the next few days, it will, in the estimation of some of the leading members, have passed a most dangerous point.
(By the Associated Press)
GENEVA, Nov. 30.—The Japan- ese delegation will not make any proposal for racial equality at this session of the assembly of the league of nations, it was announced by Viscount Ishii, at this morning's session of the assembly.
"Japan will patiently bide her time," said Viscount Ishii, "until an opportune moment shall present itself. The Japanese delegation also has decided to withdraw its protest against annual meetings of the as- sembly, although it required five months for a delegation from Japan to make the long journey and return."
He recommended meetings once in two years, with special meetings in emergencies, but said he would not press the point.
The Japanese delegate made these declarations in speaking on the report of the committee, in rules, which was read to the full as- sembly at the opening of the ses- sion. The committee based its re- port on the principal that the as- sembly is the sovereign organization of the league but intermittent, and that the executive council is the permanent power, with the secre- tariat as the continuous medium for discussion of both the assembly and the council. Some complex ques- tions regarding the relations be- tween the assembly and the council were reserved by the committee for further investigation.

Ada Folks Like to Jazz Around
Do the Jazz Walk Here Like in Muskogee

It now comes to pass in the course of human events, in this age of speed, syncopation and jazz, that almost everyone in Ada dances, even on their way to work.
And the Muskogee Times-Democrat says everyone in Mus- kogee is doing it. The jazz-ateria of the large cities, says the Times-Democrat, and the jazz music in Muskogee church- es have all taken a back seat to make room for the jazz walk.
Have you noticed the jazz walkers on the streets of Ada?
If you haven't, just keep your eyes peeled the next time you're in one of those Main street crowds.
Good in Traffic Jam
It can't be beat for getting through traffic jams on the side.
Notice the brisk business man on the way to his office. He walks with a sliding springy step that is part of the jazz walk. But watch, as he hears another pedestrian going in a direction opposite to his own. Sure crash, you think, but see what he did, a swift gliding tickle-toe to the right and he passes on.
Where did he learn it?

Will Save You Lots
Why, he puts in his evenings on the dance floor.
Have you tried the jazz walk? It will save you embarrass- ment, time, temper and corns.
You know how it feels to be about to pass some petite little blonde and have some one on the right joggle against you, causing you to lurch against the pretty doll and receive a look from her that makes you want to hunt the proverbial hole.
How It's Done
Well the next time this acci- dent is about to occur try this. Bear your weight, no matter what it is, on your right heel and push to the right with your left toe. If necessary hum a raggy little tune, it will get you by.
Now don't say you can't do it, for you have to.
Everyone else does.
Watch your neighbor, he does it.
Yep, the old "woild" is get- tin' too swift for ordinary walk- ing.
Do the jazz walk and you will not only feel and get along better but you will be more popular.

No Cheaper Than Last Xmas
To Say it With Bon Bons

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Candy for the kiddies will be one-third cheap- er this Christmas than last but it will cost the same for the young man possessed with the "cosmic urge" to "say it with chocolates" to his lady fair.
It is not that the candy manu- facturers do not join the rest of the world in loving a lover, but, according to Albert Levy, general manager of D. Auerback and Sons, large candy manufacturers, fancy box candy sold now was made six months ago when sugar prices were soaring.
"The public generally does not realize that all of the best box chocolate candy has to age before it is good," said Levy. "All good box candy is about six months old.

Fresh candy is harmful to the stom- ach and not so tasty as that which has been "aged in the box."
Candy for the kiddies—jelly beans, creams, hard tack, lollipops and the like—will retail a third cheaper, according to Levy. The sweets munched by children and grownups whose teeth will permit will sell at from 30 to 35 cents a pound. The same grade last year brought around 50 cents.
Levy declared the price of candy has been gradually receding with sugar but the price is still from two to three times greater than be- fore America joined the war.
Greater declines have not taken place because the sugar price is not back to pre-war levels, and labor is still more costly, he said.

GOMPERS OPPOSED TO 'BLUE' SUNDAYS

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The fight for "blue Sunday" legislation in 30 state legislatures, fattered by the Lord's Day Alliance, became more bitter today with various organiza- tions lining up for or against the question.
James M. Flaherty, head of the Knights of Columbus, announced that that organization did not op- pose "sane reform" but said the K. of C. was against prohibition of Sunday sports.
Samuel Gompers, head of the American Federation of Labor, today denounced those back of the "Pur- itan Drive" for assuming they are working in behalf of the laboring man.
"Labor has not called on them for assistance and they cannot speak for labor," said Gompers. "The man who works has a right to spend Sunday in wholesome recreation."

PONZI, GOLD BRICK
KING, GETS 5 YEARS

(By the Associated Press)
BOSTON, Nov. 30.—Charles Ponzi, promoter of the get-rich-quick scheme, in which thou- sands of persons invested mil- lions of dollars before it col- lapsed last August, pleaded guilty to using the mails in a scheme to defraud, in the fed- eral district court here today.
Sentence of five years in the Plymouth county jail was imposed by Judge Hale. The court took into consideration only the first count of one indictment of 44 counts, in which it was charged that Ponzi had represented falsely that he was able to pay interest at the rate of 50 per cent in 45 days, from profits made in international postal cou- pons.

Church of Christ
Worshippers Hear
Fervent Message

Evangelist Henley delivered an- other great message to a splendid audience at the Church of Christ on Main street last night. The ex- ordium to the sermon was read from Acts 20:26-33, when his text for Sunday was read again with great feeling and force.
"Paul said, the time will come when men will not endure sound doctrine," the evangelist said, "I say to you tonight, the time has come. More fables and tolle and ear-tickling stories, and less sound doctrine, is the cry of the pleas- ure-loving people of today. Make your services look and feel like political or social meetings; make the churches more like our world and we will come with you, they say, and the teachers with the it- ching ears readily comply with the urgent request, and soon the bless- ed church of our Lord has mar- ried herself to the world around her.
The reason more men of the world do not quit the world and unite with the church, is because the church has beat them to it, and joined the world. Catholicism, Mormonism, Russellism, and every other ism thrives best when men yield themselves easy pupils to the place-hunting preacher, whose ears have been turned, and whose heart has been turned from God's Eternal Truth, and turned unto fables with men. Sound doctrine is my doctrine. Unsound doctrine is your doctrine. But I say to you, God's doctrine, God's Wonderful Word, is sound doctrine, and so far as I know, the

STOP CAROUSING
IN DARKTOWN

Must Steer Clear if Negroes
Are To Keep Their Places.

Stringent measures to put a stop to white men carousing in the colored settlement of Ada are being considered by Mayor Gary Kitchens. Time and again white men are found frequenting places in the colored settlement where they have no reasonable business, associating with negro women and encouraging violations of the law regarding the making of Choctaw beer.
"These white men visit the houses of questionable women for immoral purposes," the mayor said to a News representative yester- day. "They disturb the peace and interfere with the respectable col- ored element who are trying to keep their place as colored citi- zens of this community. We are going to see to it that the white men also keep their places."

The mayor added that all white men found frequenting places in the colored settlement and associ- ating with the colored women would be arrested for consorting.

"And no thin excuses will go," he said.
Most of those who have been regular "guests" of the question- able women in the colored settle- ment have sought the shelter of night to cover up their vicious practices, but there are some who are so blasé as to be unimpressed by the stare of their fellowmen, and they unblushingly and blatan- tly go to the houses of the women in broad daylight.
An officer saw two white men enter one negro woman's house this past Thanksgiving day, just before noon. Going around to the back of the house, he walked in on them, and found the two men and the woman standing by a stove.
"I came here to look for a wash woman," one sheepishly explained, and the other had nothing to say.
"The colored citizen is the ward of the white man," Mayor Kitch- ens said, "and we cannot afford to set a bad example for him. We want the negro to keep his place. It is necessary that the white man also keep his place. The colored settlement is for our colored citi- zens. Let the white men stay away from there unless they have some reasonable excuse for visiting the place."

The mayor said he would take up the matter with the city com- missioners at their next meeting with a view to passing an ordinance similar to the Jim Crow law to prevent white men from frequent- ing the colored district and dis- turbing the peace there.

only sound doctrine. Your doctrine and mine is unsound. It is not in man that walketh to direct his steps. Paul prayed for folks who had a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge, not according to God's sound doctrine. God tells me to rebuke and reprove, then exhort men to cleave to Christ. Leave your doctrines with all your other sins, and come unto the Lord and find rest from the perplexing prob- lems of false doctrines and com- mandments of men."

Mr. Henley closes his services with most beautiful exhortation, and invitation to men to accept the Sav- ior. The subject for this evening is "The Power of the Word." Many say this sermon is one of his many winners. A man who heard the preacher make his first effort to preach was in the audience last night and told Brother Henley that he thought he had made some improve- ments since he heard him last. Every- body invited to be present at 7:30.

THE SPIRIT THAT BUILDS
While the editorial depart- ment of this paper is con- ducted independently of the busi- ness end, we often read the ads and enjoy them. There is one in today's paper that es- pecially struck our fancy. It is an advertisement of Eby- sagg & Co., and is headed, "Prosperity vs. Stagnation."
"The custom these days is to cry 'hard times' and predict calamity, and the fellow who boasts is the exception. To see men boosting in their ad- vertising is indeed refreshing, and the simple reading of this one advertisement did more for the writer than a whole day's vacation in the cool woods.
It's easy enough to be pleas- ant.
When the world rolls along like a song,
But the man worth while is the man who can smile
When everything goes dead wrong."

LATTA HAS THE BEST SCHOOL IN PONTOTOC COUNTY

So Say the Patrons of This Consolidated School; Near Ada.

"The best school in Pontotoc county and one of the best in Oklahoma." That is what the patrons and pupils of the consolidated school at Latta says of the new school that has been organized and opened in their midst. Strictly speaking it is not the Latta school, for the new district was formed by combining the old districts of Latta, Knox and Elm Flat with a small portion of the Pickett district. The new building is in the old Latta district and stands not so very far from the old Latta school building. Incidentally the new school has not yet been named but will be presently.

Few schools in this section of Oklahoma have better buildings or better equipment than the new consolidated school whose building stands just three miles southwest from the busiest corner in the city of Ada. The building has 10 rooms besides the commodious auditorium. It also has a comfortable teacherage near the school building and a garage for the auto trucks employed in conveying the pupils to and from school.

The school building is constructed of brick and in finished in approved city style. There is a splendid room for the manual training department and one for the department of domestic science. The school possesses practically everything necessary to give its pupils a high school training equal to that afforded by the high schools of the cities and towns of Oklahoma.

There are four teachers employed by the new school and others will be added from time to time as the needs for the school justify. J. W. Huff is superintendent. He received his normal training at Central Normal at Edmond and for three years was at the head of a consolidated school at Cache where he established his reputation as a live leader in rural education. He was head of the school at Francis last year. The Latta school is fortunate in obtaining for its first superintendent a man who has had so much experience in this character of work.

The other teachers in the Latta school are W. O. Hurst, E. H. Gillerman and Miss Driskill. The last named has charge of the primary work. The reason why so many men instead of women were employed as teachers is that the teachers drive the trucks to convey the pupils to and from school. The district bought three Ford auto trucks at a cost of $3,600 and the three male teachers receive extra compensation as truck drivers. Early each morning the pedagogs leave the teacherage and in their trucks go to the remotest corners of the district to pick up the young Americans and bring them in to their day's work. In the afternoon they make another trip, taking the pupils back to their homes.

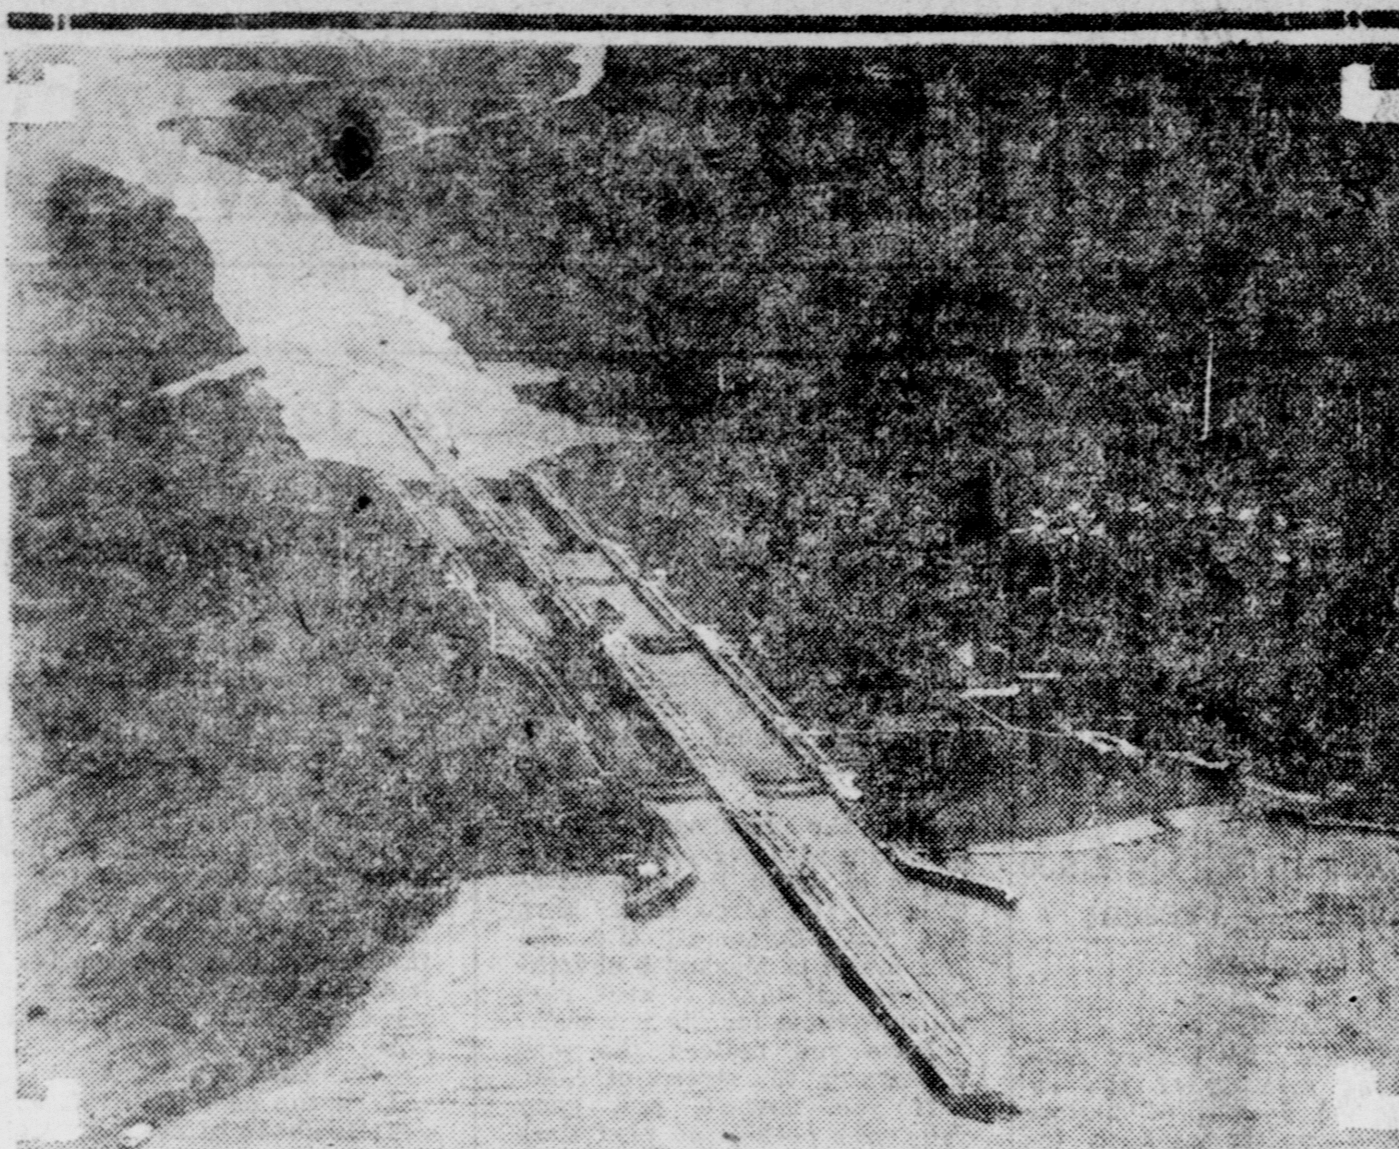

Prior to the consolidation of these several school districts three schools, employing five teachers, were maintained. All of these schools were lacking in accommodations and equipment. All the teachers were burdened with the impossible task of teaching five or six grades. Although the teachers were industrious, the pupils studious, and the patrons loyal, it was impossible to achieve satisfactory results. The system was wrong. It was in no sense the fault of the people in the community that their schools were not among the best for no better people live in Oklahoma. They were simply trying to do something that cannot be done.

Finally the patrons of the different schools saw that they were trying to carry water in a sieve—something that never has been done successfully. They determined to end the profitless task they were engaged in and started a movement to consolidate their schools. They combined their districts, voted bonds and built a school building that is a credit to the county. In place of five teachers teaching everything they employed four teachers, who under the new system, can confine their labors to a few grades and in a certain sense are enabled to specialize. They have a high school in their midst and have conveyances to take their children over the muddy roads to school. Any pupil in the district can get to school in comfort and safety, and the advanced pupils can get high school training without having to leave home.

There are 287 pupils of school age enumerated in the new consolidated district. The school opened two weeks ago and already shows promise of becoming one of the live schools of this section. The school board is composed of William Haynes, T. L. Cooper and W. M. Anderson.

School people who have made a study of consolidated school matters declare that the first year is the most difficult one to operate a school of that character. The cost is necessarily greater that year than it is thereafter. The purchase of the necessary equipment naturally increases the cost of operation and these initial outlays sometimes cause patrons of the school to grow dissatisfied with consolidation. Then there are usually found some patrons who have opposed consolidation just because the project is new and these must be shown the desirability and superiority of the new arrangement.

New Version of Mary's Lamb.

Mary had a little lamb, its fleece was white as snow; it strayed away one day, where lambs should never go. And Mary sat her quickly down and tears streamed from her eyes; she never found her little lamb, for she did not advertise. And Mary had a brother John who kept a village store; he sat him down and smoked a pipe, and watched the open door. And as the people passed along and did not stop to buy, John still sat and smoked his pipe and blinked his sleepy eyes. And so the sheriff closed him out but still he lingered near, and Mary came to drop with him, a sympathetic tear. "How is it, sister, can you tell, why other merchants here, sell all their goods so readily and thrive from year to year?" Remembering her own bad luck, the little maid replied: "These other fellows get there, John, because they advertise." Headlight, Hoskins, Neb.

MUSKOGEE BROWNSKIN CAUSES WIFE TROUBLE

MUSKOGEE, Nov. 30.—Samuel Gray, negro, started trouble for his wife, Estella Gray, Friday when he brought suit for divorce.

Last night Estella slept in the county jail, though her companions were the same people in whose home she lived, Charlie Jones and his wife.

All are charged with having possession of several hundred dollars worth of cocaine and morphine.

Friday afternoon when Deputy Sheriff Mont Grady went to the Jones home to serve Estella with a notice of her husband's suit for divorce, Jones' wife peeked through the curtained front door, asked what he wanted and offered to take the paper to Estella.

"No, I've got to give it to her in person," the deputy replied.

"You'll have to wait then, she's taking a bath now," the Jones woman said, and did not open the door.

Eventually Estella came around the house from the back and met the deputy, accepting the service from him.

It Looked "Queer."

It didn't look right to Deputy Sheriff Grady and yesterday he procured a search warrant and, taking Deputy Sheriff Homer Taft with him, went back.

This time he got in.

Peeking under the cupboard he saw a barrel. Pushing the cupboard aside he disclosed what he thought was 50 gallons of corn whisky mash.

Just to prove that it was hog feed, the Jones woman dipped a bucketful out and fed it to the hogs on the spot.

Then the two deputies crawled under the house, just to see what they could see.

They found a little wooden box tucked away on a shelf. It contained one big bottle of cocaine and five bottles of morphine, probably $500 worth of drugs, they estimated.

The law against narcotics being more stringent than the prohibition law, the officers didn't bother further with the hog feed whisky mash.

"Dear May," wrote the young man who had been turned down the night before and craved vengeance, "last night I proposed to you, but really have forgotten whether you said yes or no. These little things slip one's mind so."

"Dear Will," she wrote back. "I was so glad to get your letter. I remember having said no to someone last night, but had forgotten to whom. These little things certainly do."

Here is How You can Save Lives; Buy Health Seals

Seal your mail with the Stamp of Health

Buy Christmas Seals and fight tuberculosis.

This cut shows a small boy putting a Tuberculosis Christmas seal on a letter, while good old Saint Nick watches approvingly.

Everybody in this city and county will be given an opportunity to save lives by buying these health seals from December 1 to 15. A county chairman has already been appointed, and the county is thoroughly organized.

The seals sell for one cent each. Money raised by the sale of seals is spent solely for health. No paid campaign managers are used. The sale is under the direction of the Oklahoma Public Health association, and is conducted by its regular staff.

Half the money raised in this county from seals will be spent right here at home. Forty-five per cent will be spent in the state, and the remaining 5 per cent will be used nationally.

The money is used to support public health nurses, tuberculosis dispensaries, infant welfare conferences, open air schools, negro health work, Indian health work, the "Modern Health Crusade" in the schools, to foster industrial health education, sanatorium legislation, health educational campaigns, etc.

The Oklahoma Public Health Association, which is supported largely by the seal sale, is responsible to a great extent for the three free state tuberculosis sanatoria provided by the last legislature.

HEALTHY NEW YEAR

BUY CHRISTMAS SEALS
Above is a facsimile of the 1920 Tuberculosis Christmas seal. Every man, woman and child in this county is asked to buy at least 10 of these seals at one cent each to use on holiday packages and letters—to make a Christmas gift of one dime to humanity. Half the money thus raised is to be spent for public health work right in this county. Forty-five per cent is spent in the state for health work, and 5 per cent in the nation. Three thousand and Oklahoma are the annual of tuberculosis. There are 40,000 active cases of the disease in the state. This county has its deaths from tuberculosis every month. You can help stop them. Help stamp out the White Plague with Christmas seals.

DOUBLE-BAR CROSS EMBLEM OF FIGHT ON TUBERCULOSIS

Here is the insignia of the enemies of tuberculosis. It appears on every Tuberculosis Christmas Seal. They will be on sale throughout this city from December 1 to 15. All of the stationery and publications of the Oklahoma Public Health Association, which is fostering the 1920 seal sale will carry the seal. This insignia is international in scope. It is used by every one of the 1,200 associations in the United States which are fighting the White Plague.

The cross was first adopted in 1902. It is adapted from the Croix de Lorraine of France, which in turn dates back to the original Greek two-arm cross. It has been used in this country extensively since 1906, and has been copyrighted by the National Tuberculosis Association.

Girl Scouts' Ten Golden Rules To Be Pulpit Topic For Ministers Of The Nation

A MERRY little girl in khaki is appearing on brick walls, fence posts, and signboards in every corner of the United States and her territories. She is the Girl Scout poster girl and she smiles down on Americans from New York to California, and from Alaska to Hawaii and Porto Rico, to remind them of the Girl Scouts' membership campaign, November 6th to the 15th.

The Girl Scouts are asking for $1,033,400 to take care of the thousands of girls who must now be turned away every month. The campaign is to be a Dollar Membership Campaign, and everybody who believes in training girls in home-making, citizenship and health-building is asked to become an associate member.

Girl Scout Week will be a busy one for every town and community where Girl Scouts are organized. The first day the Girl Scouts will have a service parade, after which they will visit children's and babies' wards in homes and hospitals to carry harvest offerings of fruit and flowers to the little patients. One of the features of the campaign will be Daddies' Day, a special day set aside for men to become Girl Scout Daddies at the bargain price of $15.00.

A Girl Scout pageant written for the campaign will be staged by every Girl Scout organization throughout the nation. Even the Lone Scout, that little girl who is the sole member of a one-girl troop in some isolated corner, will try to put on a show and get associate members for the Girl Scouts. The pageant depicts a week's calendar as lived by Girl Scouts, and the symbolic figures, Youth and Uncle Sam, will be represented, with Youth showing Uncle Sam how she serves him day by day.

Monday is wash day for Girl Scouts, as for everybody else in the world; on Tuesday, they cook; Wednesday they sew; Thursday is the Girl Scout's day for community service; on Friday she camps or hikes; Saturday is baby-tending day; and on Sunday the Scouts go to church.

In New York, Marguerite Clark, the famous film actress, will take the part of Youth, and William R. Corbett, motion picture actor who took the part of Uncle Sam in "Uncle Sam of Freedom Ridge," will play Uncle Sam for the Girl Scout pageant.

Girl Scout Sunday will take place on November 7th. On that day, ministers of every religious faith will preach from the pulpit on the Girl Scout laws, the ten golden rules on which the Girl Scout movement stands. The Scout laws are: A Girl Scout's honor is to be trusted; a Girl Scout is loyal; a Girl Scout's duty is to be useful and to help others; a Girl Scout is a friend to all; and a sister to every other Girl Scout; a Girl Scout is courteous; a Girl Scout is a friend to animals; a Girl Scout obeys orders; a Girl Scout is cheerful; a Girl Scout is thrifty; a Girl Scout is clean in thought, word and deed. On Girl Scout Sunday, the uniformed Girl Scouts will attend church with their captains.

Congress Will Be Asked To Continue Federal Aid Plan

The Ada Chamber of Commerce has just adopted a resolution which outlines a plan of federal aid in road building that will be presented to each of the Oklahoma representatives and Senators in congress with the request that they lend their support in an effort to embody the substance of the resolution in a national law. Other commerce bodies of the state will pass a similar resolution and ask the co-operation of Oklahoma congressmen in the matter.

The resolution calls attention to the fact that under the act of congress monies available July 1, 1920, for Federal Aid Road Construction terminated the program provided for, and all such funds coming to Oklahoma have already been pledged to different counties of the state; that the Federal Aid plan of road building has been of great financial assistance to Oklahoma and a powerful stimulant to road building generally; that there are many counties of the state which would inaugurate a campaign of permanent road building if financial assistance and supervision could be obtained from the United States government, and that the national platform of each of the two great political parties in the last presidential campaign declared for a continuation of the present plan of Federal Aid for road building.

The resolution requests that the National Congress be implored to appropriate the sum of four million dollars ($4,000,000.00) for road building purposes to be distributed to the several states of the union under the present plan of supervision, the said four hundred million dollars to be made available for the use of the several states in the following manner:

July 1, 1921—$100,000,000.00
July 1, 1922—100,000,000.00
July 1, 1923—100,000,000.00
July 1, 1924—100,000,000.00

The resolutions from the various commerce organizations of the state will be placed in the hands of Congressmen by December 4.

Shorty drops in on New York!

HERE WE ARE, PETE!

New York
Wednesday night

Camped once more in the plumb centre of our old stamping grounds—rubbing elbows with the roaring racket and running flush into more electric displays, blazing posters and smashing signs that sound the joys of Camel Cigarettes than you'd ever believe could be jammed into one town!

When I hit Broadway this p. m. I'd said the Reynolds folks had transplanted "Camel City" right up here!

It seems like all New Yorkers have adopted Camels as their own personal brand! And, Pete, since this is the original speed town it's only what you expect when you see 'em carry a package of Camels in each coat pocket. If their right hand is busy, they dig out their left hand deck—they just won't lose time getting a Camel lighted! That's the gait around here, old thorobred!

And, Peter, the New Yorker has his own A-1 pet reason why he's so keen for Camels. For instance, Doc Marshall will bet his car on Camels quality against any cigarette in the world! Bill James says to me—"Shorty, there never was mild, mellow body like Camels." And, as for Dan Boggs—he spills it that Camels are the only cigarette free from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or cigarette odor! And, he knows! Frank Frazer will tell you it's Camels wonderful Turkish and Domestic blend! And all of them are right!

And, Pete, old proof-of-the-pudding—you tell 'em that Missouri hasn't anything on little old New York when it comes to that "show me" stuff, on cigarettes or anything else!

Sincerely

Shorty

BUTTER CHEAPER: EGGS GO HIGHER

CHICAGO—Butter is and will probably continue considerably cheaper this year than last while eggs are higher and will probably continue higher, according to J. S. Brown, Chicago representative of the United States bureau of markets in charge of dairy products.

This contrasting situation Mr. Brown attributed to a surplus of butter, due chiefly to lack of export trade, and a heavy import trade in butter, and on the other hand to an actual shortage of eggs due to small production.

"The situation in butter and eggs at the present time is a little different than it is in other food commodities, because of the fact that the public is now dependent for adequate supply on stocks put away in storage months ago when prices were all high," the agricultural official said.

"Present prices are therefore on that basis. There is a very liberal supply of storage butter in the country. There is more on hand now than a year ago at this time. It is being taken out of cold storage and used, but it is not going out as rapidly as last year. Export business in butter was good in 1919 but it is poor this year, and in addition, butter is being received from New Zealand, Denmark and Argentina. Receipts of Danish butter have already made a heavy showing.

"Fresh butter is selling at prices 10 cents under last year and storage butter is now losing its holders money. If its price continues to decline they face the possibility of a serious loss."

"With eggs the situation is different. There was a shortage right through the producing season. Storage eggs were put away at high prices and are going out fast. This may leave a shortage later on. Eggs are the one thing in the food line that is likely to stay high, until February, when eggs usually drop because of new receipts."

Six Merchandising Essentials.

A famous merchant used to say that the following six policies are responsible for his success:

- First—Changing advertisements often.
- Second—Making advertisements really advertise something.
- Third—Making every advertisement a top-notch sale.
- Fourth—Getting acquainted with customers and keeping acquainted with them.
- Fifth—Going even to extremes to keep faith in every way with the trade.
- Sixth—Going out of the way to deal squarely with everyone.

These six principles are well worth considering by every retail merchant. There is no field in which the above principles can better apply than the merchant who daily hands out the essentials of life in his community. Advertising is, however, an investment, and in order to be effective it takes time, thought and money. When these three factors enter into your advertising, satisfactory results will follow.—Popular Storekeeper.

One of the Greatest Wastes in Your Kitchen Eliminated

How Much Money Do You Waste Each Month on Old Fashioned Cooking Methods?

EVERY housewife realizes that one of the greatest wastes in the kitchen is caused by having to discard lard and fat which has been used to fry fish, onions, or other foods which give up their taste and odor to ordinary fats or cooking compounds.

The reason animal fat absorbs odors and flavors of foods cooked in it—which renders it unfit for any other cooking use—is because it cannot be heated high enough to prevent the absorption of these odors and flavors. It burns first.

Housewives who cook the modern way, with Mazola, avoid this trouble. Mazola, the Great American Salad and Cooking Oil, can be heated to such a high temperature without smoking, that the food is instantly crusted over.

An Interesting Test That Will Save You Money

The flavor is kept in food cooked with Mazola and there are no odors. Try it for yourself. Take a piece of fish, and fry it in Mazola. Then strain off the oil. You can use this strained Mazola even as shortening for a cake or pie crust. Not a particle of the fish flavor will be in either the cake or the pie.

And because so little Mazola is taken up in the food in frying, there is another big saving in using Mazola—especially for the deep frying of doughnuts, crullers and croquettes.

Recent experiments, conducted by experts in domestic science, prove this fact conclusively. A given amount of Mazola will fry more potatoes, doughnuts, fish, or any other food that is deep-fried, than lard or ordinary compounds.

As, for instance, when it was demonstrated that 2 lbs. of Mazola fried 24½ lbs. of potatoes, whereas only 7 lbs. 14 ounces of potatoes were fried in 2 lbs. of lard.

It's a great satisfaction, too, for the refined woman to use Mazola. For it does not smoke up the kitchen, nor does it work a hardship on the neighbors.

Costs You Less Than Half the Price of Olive Oil

Thousands of families everywhere, who are fond of salads, use Mazola in preference to even the very finest Italian olive oil. It blends better with the other salad ingredients than does olive oil, and makes a smoother dressing, that will keep for weeks without separating, even when not kept in the ice box.

If you haven't yet used Mazola, get a can from your grocer today. You'll never be without it again. At all grocers in pint, quart, half-gallon and gallon cans.

CONGRESS TO THE RESCUE

It is believed that the day of permanent relief for the Armenian is close at hand. Altho the Turkish Nationalists have formed a conspiracy with the Russian Bolsheviks to jointly massacre the inhabitants of Armenia, it is announced that at the approaching session of congress notice will be taken of the Armenian situation and affirmative steps taken to terminate the murders now being planned in the shadow of Ararat.

When congress convenes in Washington some of the most vigorous and indignant resolutions ever penned will be prepared and introduced. The language of imprecation will be drawn on heavily. The most piteous picture ever limned will be presented to our Solons in the form of congressional memorials. Many a congressional sophomore will flower in to fame inveighing against the inhumanities of the unspeakable Turk and the unwashed Bolshevik. It is going to be a session of resolution and denunciation.

The attitude of congress is going to be very dispiriting to Muscovite and Moslem. The scimitar of every Ishmaelite will lose its edge when congress adopts House Resolution No. 7. The bludgeon of every Bolshevik will fall harmlessly from the head of Armenian babes when Longworth of Ohio begins to denounce the unspeakable barbarities of the upper Euphrates. Machine guns will lose the range and shrapnel will become as harmless as confetti when the assembled hordes of Asiatic assassins learn that congress has adopted a resolution condemning the slaughter of Christians.

As a Christian nation we can no longer consent to the massacre of Christian babes and women. The tremendous query, "Am I my brother's keeper?" was first voiced in the vales of Armenia. Somewhere near the boundaries of that land of tragedy was located the happy garden in which lived the parents of humanity. Hence it is unthinkable that Armenians should be led to the slaughter like sheep of the shambles and Americans remain unmoved. Through the congress of all the people a flow of verbal sympathy will be forwarded to those hapless people. We will pass ten thousand resolutions. We will deliver a million speeches. We will do everything possible except send money to feed them or soldiers to defend them. We are in deepest truth our brother's keeper. Is not our brotherhood attested and our Christianity demonstrated by the ringing resolutions now incubating in the halls of congress? Of course our marines are too busy shooting Haiti negroes in the back to defend Armenian children, but when it comes to passing congressional resolutions we are wampus cats.

GETTING TOO POPULAR

There may be nothing in the remark of a student overheard the other day that the very popularity won by the Salvation Army during the war will finally weaken if not utterly destroy that organization. But even at that the remark is interesting.

Prior to the war, according to the student, the work of the Salvation Army was carrier on as a task of love and duty. No element of selfishness appeared among its workers. Because of their devotion to duty and their love for their fellowman Salvation Army workers went down into the waste places and labored powerfully but quietly for the uplift of the fallen. Then the war broke and because of their unselfish devotion the Salvation Army workers won a wonderful popularity among the people of the world.

Following the war some very prominent people began working with the Army. Their presence is already making a change in the order. Everywhere is apparent some slight disposition to get away from the slums and up on front street. And if the Salvation Army abandons the slum and enters into competition with other organizations, it is doomed. So says the student. We shall see.

This was told us by a Pittsburg County farmer. He read in an agricultural bulletin of the splendid profits to be made from wool-growing and was much impressed with the possibilities. He bought a hundred sheep and imagined himself the vanguard of prosperity. He clipped the wool from his hundred sheep, took the product to market, and sold it for enough to pay for one suit of woolen clothes.

The clean sweep the Republicans made early in the month reminds us that the purpose of all sweeping is to gather up the trash.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

It seems that the demagogic war on "international bankers" has had its part in lowering the vitality of international exchanges, and that has reflected on the prices of cotton and grain for export. Probably there is no way to estimate the tax we pay on our homespun demagoguery, but it must be large.—Dallas News.

Dr. Dernberg says he couldn't condemn the sinking of the Lusitania without disloyalty to his country. He may be right, if that's the kind of country he had.—Dallas News.

Democratic ballots were found in a New York sewer. It is understood that election officials will be prosecuted for chocking the sewer.—Muskogee Phoenix.

Now that they have had their fling with the ballot, the dear creatures can put in the next four years doing some real good with the slipper.—Muskogee Phoenix.

Some news travels awfully slow. For instance, the retail meat dealers have not yet heard that hogs, on the hoof, are less than 10 cents.—Ardmoreite.

Remembering that this is a bone-dry country, the "pie-eyed" men one meets on the streets must come from some other hemisphere.—Tulsa Tribune.

The Republican mantle dropped by the Ardmore leader will be found large enough to enclose half a dozen of the men who are scrambling to succeed to it.—Tulsa Tribune.

Before he gets through with the job, Mr. Harding will find that to form his "new association of nations" requires more than a simple twist of his wrist.—Chickasha Express.

A Kentucky man who was arrested in Dallas confessed that he had embezzled some seven hundred thousand dollars but, aside from that, he said his conscience was clear. A sort of model citizen, you might say, but a cold world will probably not forgive him for his little act of indiscretion.

Dizziness Causes Fall—Head Injured

"A year ago my stomach bled so badly with gas that I felt unconscious and cut my head badly on corner of door. I had suffered from stomach trouble for several years and no medicine helped me to speak of. A druggist patched up my head and advised me to use Mayr's Wonderful Remedy for my stomach trouble. The results have been really wonderful. I have never had any sign of my former symptoms since." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. All druggists everywhere. (adv)

When a Woman is Nervous—Worried

The lives of most women are full of worry. Men's troubles are bad enough, but women's are worse. Worry makes women sick. It pulls them down, and in their weakened condition they are subject to pains, aches, weakness, backaches, headaches and dizzy spells. Most women neglect their health, and for this they pay the penalty. Any woman will find that neglect does not pay. A little more attention to health would brighten up her life. If she asks her neighbors she finds that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription benefits a woman's whole system. It not only acts upon the troubles and weaknesses peculiar to women, but is an all-round tonic that braces the entire body, overcoming nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, dizziness and a run-down condition.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS.—"For about three years I have been in a run-down condition. I would be so weak at times I could scarcely get around. I was extremely nervous, could not sleep and I was in a miserable state when I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I have not taken all of one bottle but am feeling better than I have for a long time. I am going to continue its use for I know it is helping me more than any medicine I have taken." —Mrs. H. T. KNIFE, 613 Burleson St.

The Delphians Meet.

The Delphians met in regular session November 23rd in the parlors of the Harris hotel. The subjects of the lesson were Drama of Restoration and Eighteenth Century Drama. Mrs. Bayless was leader.

What debt does the Drama owe to the Tudor and Stuart rulers, was the first topic, and was ably discussed by Mrs. Cora McKeel. Reports of early tragedy queens were given by Mesdames Hickman and Barton. Mrs. Hickman entered into a discussion of the lives and histories of Mary and Elizabeth of England. Mrs. Barton followed with a discussion of the tragedy queens of the stage, including Elizabeth Barry, Sarah Siddons and others. After prompt responses to various topics by other members, Mrs. Granger closed the program with a reading from Sheridan's School for Scandal.

By vote of the club it was decided not to enter the state federation at this time. Mrs. Bayless was elected secretary to succeed Mrs. Harmon Ebey, resigned.

SLOAN'S GOES RIGHT TO THE ACHING SPOT

You can just tell by its healthy, stimulating odor, that it is going to do you good

THOUSANDS of men and women, when the least little rheumatic "crick" assails them, have Sloan's Liniment handy to knock it out. Popular over a third of a century ago—far more popular today.

That's because it is so wonderfully helpful in relieving external aches and pains—sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia, overstrained muscles, stiff joints, weather exposure results. A little is all that is necessary, for it soon penetrates without rubbing, to the sore spot. No muss, no stained skin. All druggists—35c, 70c, $1.40.

POPULATION OF FARMS SMALLER

Labor Saving Equipment Helps To Replace the Farm Hands.

There have been many agricultural counties in various states, which, for a number of decades past, have shown an actual decline in the farming population. This falling off in many cases has not been due to the abandonment of lands, but to a change in the character of the products of a given district, and to the increased use of labor-saving machinery. No former census, however, has shown what this one of 1920 reveals, namely, an actual reduction in the total population of the farm districts of the United States in the very face of a large increase in the aggregate population of the country. If Americans were not so ready to desert the land and go to the towns and cities, it would not be so easy for the Japanese to acquire land and gain rapid control over the Pacific Coast market for vegetables, flowers, fruits and other rural products says the Review of Reviews.

The census, in noting the shifts and groupings of our population makes three main distinctions. Urban or town people are those who are living in cities or incorporated places having more than 2500 people. Rural population includes not only those living on the farms and in the open country, but those living in towns and villages that do not exceed 2500 population. A further distinction, however, is made between those who live in incorporated places that are below the 2500 line and the people living in the open country and in unincorporated villages. More than half of our entire population live now under what the census defines as urban conditions; that is, are in incorporated places all the way from great cities, like New York and Chicago, down to compact incorporated towns of 2500 people. Of these town dwellers we have 54,816,209; just 52 per cent of the grand total. The rural half of our population amounts to 50,866,899; which is just over 48 per cent of the aggregate. But, as our readers well know, the country has many thousands of incorporated towns and villages which have less than 2500 people each, yet have conditions of life more like those of city people than like those of farmers. The census makes this distinction, and finds almost 10,000,000 (9.3 per cent of the total population) living in these lesser towns and villages that are incorporated. Finally we have left, in round figures, 41,000,000 people, or 38.8 percent of our entire population, living on farms or in country hamlets and communities that are not incorporated.

THE ARTICLES HAVE BEEN SIGNED BUT THE FIGHT'S STILL A LONG WAY OFF

If we add the smaller incorporated places to the city population, and then compare the census of 1910 and the census of 1920, we find that those refraining, namely the farmers and dwellers in the country hamlets and villages, who formed ten years ago 44.8 percent of the total population, are now diminished to 38.8 per cent. Not very long ago this purely rural part of our population was more than half of the whole. It is now only a little more than one-third of the whole. This is a very rapidly relative decline. If the tendency continues at the same rate for another ten years, less than one-third of our population will be living in the country districts and more than two-thirds will be in the incorporated towns, cities, and villages, possessing municipal government and facilities. Not only has the decline of the country population been thus marked in ratio to the aggregate, but there has been a positive as well as a comparative falling off. We have actually fewer farm people by more than 200,000 than we had ten years ago. With many additional millions of mouths to feed in the towns and cities, we have fewer people to provide the bread, meat, milk, fruit, vegetables, and so on than we had ten years ago. This decline is partly offset by increased use of machinery and other changes in farm methods. But the census figures give point and definiteness to the arguments of those who have been for a good while demanding policies that would help to reconstruct our oldtime American country life. There are many things to be taken into account besides the mere population statistics. The situation is not desperate, but it calls for policies that will check the tendency before evils set in that it will be difficult to remedy. Fortunately, there is a disposition everywhere to face facts and apply correctives.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The lecture delivered by Dr. W. A. McKeever at the Methodist church last Wednesday evening was a clear cut statement of the obligation of every community to its young people.

Doctor McKeever was here on invitation of the civic organizations of the city to complete all arrangements for Ada's entrance into the Better Cities contest which is being fostered by him.

At the conclusion of his address a committee, consisting of Mrs. Orville Sneed, Robert Wimbish, C. E. Cuning and J. E. Hickman, was appointed to complete the organization and proceed with the work. This committee will meet at an early date and appoint the committees called for in the organization and these committees will begin at once the work outlined for them.

This is a matter that should be taken up by every citizen of the city. No committee of men and women can do what is proposed but the people as a whole can do it.

On Monday morning the committee of citizens, consisting of Messrs. Coffman, Simpson and Gregg, who have manifested their interest in high school activities by circulating a subscription list to secure funds to help purchase supplies for these various activities, made its report.

Preliminary to their report reported the results of the boys work last Tuesday. A total of $147 was reported at that time and several collections yet remain to be made.

Mr. Coffman then made a report for his committee and stated that a total of $662 in cash had been raised.

Mr. Fentem then reported that the athletic association, which has been responsible for all games played this season, and for the picture shows that have been had at the high school, had been at an expense of $1,004 to date and that the association had received from all sources $1,027, leaving the association ahead by $23.

This amount does not include the $662 donated by the citizens of Ada, or the $147 donated by the boys of the school, as this money has been expended for equipment only and has not been used to defray maintenance expenses of the association.

The high school, as a whole, expressed its approval of the services of these business men by extending to them a unanimous vote of thanks and by giving them a hearty "Rah, Rah, Rah."

We give below the contributions made to this committee:

W. J. Coffman, $25; Coffman, Bobbitt & Sparks, $25; R. W. Simpson, $25; John P. Crawford, $25; C. H. Rives, $25; P. A. Norris, $25; S. M. ### CHICAGO HAS CRIME ORGANIZATIONS, IN CHARGE

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—"Crime is an established business in Chicago," according to Henry Barrett Chamberlain of the Chicago crime commission.

"We are being told that the crime situation in Chicago is an emergency demanding our attention," Chamberlain told the federation council today. "It is now; crime has been centralized, or organized and commercialized. It is as steady a business as any conducted in this city."

PROSPERITY vs. STAGNATION

Waiting for prices to drop to the bottom before you buy means throwing the monkey wrench into the cog wheels of business.

If you don't buy, you can't expect the next fellow to buy—and he won't! What's the result? Poor business—failures, unemployment, hard times for everyone.

What's the remedy? BUY NOW! Buy your full normal purchases of the essentials, buy those lots you had contemplated buying, build that house you are waiting to build, but do it NOW.

If you do buy now, you will be buying at reduced prices, yet helping to stabilize business in general. And when you help stabilize business in general, you're helping your own business.

If you do buy now, it will enable the man you bought from to buy, and the endless chain started will work to your benefit and spread confidence.

Real Estate in Ada has never slumped—it has its dull periods when special bargains may be had—it is dull now and has been for months.

During such periods is the time to buy—it's the time to build—building contractors will get the labor and material costs down to the minimum. We can't supply the demand for houses in Ada. The same is true all over the country. Money will be plentiful for building purposes after the first of the year and spring will bring renewed activity in real estate and building.

Get your lots during the lull and make your building contract before spring. It's good horse sense to buy now and make Ada the most prosperous city in the country which will attract to us the moneyed live wires.

We have bargains in houses and lots and invite you to call and get our prices. We think we can convince you that you can save money by buying now, thus helping yourself and stimulating business.

Only One More Week of the Big Votes Period Closing Monday, December 6th, at 6 o'clock

Right Now the Ada News offers an unusual opportunity; one so unusual and far reaching that it will scare the "faint-hearted," "can't-be-done" folks out at once. But if you are ambitious, if there is a spark of ACHIEVEMENT within you, don't kill it, nurse it! Develop it! Put it to work! Back it up with DETERMINATION and ENERGY! You can't win unless you TRY! Remember that volume of subscriptions will be the factor that tells the winner.

How To Get a Half Million Credits

Get six of your good friends, who want to see you drive that Essex car, to take a five year subscription to the Ada Daily News.

For each subscription you will receive 25,000 credits and for each of the $20 clubs you will receive 50,000 credits. Six subscriptions will give you 150,000 credits—the seven $20 clubs will give you 350,000 credits—there's your half million credits and $10 over on your next "club."

FORD CAR WRECKED BY HIGH LIFED BULL

WETUMKA, Nov. 30.—(Special.)—A mad bull, a badly frightened farmer, and a demoralized Ford car, are figuring in the latest near tragedy of this section of Hughes county. The mixup occurred on an extremely dark night immediately recent.

It seems that some bad, bad boys had corralled a vagrant bull on the commons and in order to while away a monotonous evening had applied a liberal quantity of "high life" to the bull's epidermis. They also added insult to injury by fastening a tin bucket filled with horseshoes to the bull's caudal appendage—co-wit, his tail. Then they let the maddened bull go. He went.

In the meantime a well known fellow citizen of the bad boys aforesaid had closed a busy day of shopping in Wetumka and his slow and wheezing Ford was on his way home in the haw thickets. The Ford loaded to the guards with barb wire and bacon and Montgomery Ward catalogs was slowly picking its way through a dark and lonely lane, an interminable pall of fog pressing down on every hand and a deep mixture of black mud clinging lovingly to the wheels of the car.

Suddenly hell broke loose in Georgia. Out of the darkened night of fog and stillness like a rushing, mighty wind, some unknown instrument of perdition came down on that Ford. It was the bull. Maddened to a frenzy by the insidious effects of "high life" and frightened into wall-eyed fits by the bucket of horseshoes beating at his heels the bull saw the feeble headlight of the Ford and knew it for his worst enemy. He had no thought but to destroy that gas wagon and to do the job in record time. He frantically fell foul of the Ford with horns, hoof, body and loud bawling. His defiant death yell was calculated to waken the quick and the dead. And the quickest thing in all that neighborhood was the driver of the Ford, who rudely roused from a quiet cogitation on the injustice of increased increments, knew that bawling of the bull for the blast of the archangel's trumpet. He had a positive reluctance towards meeting death in a dark alley, so he left that vicinity right now. He left with a celerity that called to memory the former record of one Nancy Hanks.

Nor did the speeding driver desire to make a world record without witnesses. He called aloud. He called extremely loud. His shouts for help were of the rapid fire variety. He was not weary of his job but repeated the call till the echoes of the North Canadian valley were doing hand springs. As a welkin ringer he won the world's blue ribbon. And from cabin, crotch and cornfield came a hastily mobilized army of assistance. Armed with shotguns, crow bars, pitchforks and rolling pins they answered the call of the wild. They didn't suspect murder—there was too much of it. Nothing but an Armenian massacre was defiling the sod of their native heath. It was a wholesale matter.

Overcoming the natural reluctance of mere men to attack a legion of devils in a dark lane, they approached the scene of the outbreak. The bull was still there—like the flag on Ft. McHenry. But the Ford was elsewhere. It was separated into sections. It had literally been horned off the map. It had been gored and pawed and trampled on until it possessed but little of its former glory. It was a bovine triumph. With the radiator decking his off horn and angrily masticating a mail order catalog that bull was literally the bull of the woods.

The owner and driver of the Ford was angry. He is angry still. It was bad enough to be frightened out of his wits by a bull-rush. It was worse to have a perfectly peaceful and serviceable Ford hooked into giblets by a "high life" bull. But it was worst of all to learn that the revised statutes of Oklahoma contain no provision by

GO TO THEATRE

At the McSwain.

When Cecil B. DeMille produced that excellent photoplay, "Don't Change Your Husband," sometime ago, it scored immensely because it presented, in a charming manner a subject of intense interest to married folk. Now he has followed it with a sort of companion picture which presents the other side of the question treated in the story mentioned, namely, "Why Change Your Wife?" which was shown at the McSwain theater with enormous success yesterday and which shows again today.

Mr. DeMille has risen to great heights in his depiction of the wife who in her overwhelming love for her husband tires him to the degree that he finds solace in the companionship of a pretty divorcee. The wife who forgets to make a playmate of her husband, and who has changed remarkably since their marriage 10 years previously, obtains a divorce and he marries the other woman. It then develops that his second wife grows to be very opposite to what she was when he married her, and trouble ensues.

At the New Liberty.

Charles Ray's characterization of Kid Burns, the ex-pugilist in "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway," is a happy blending of the interpretations of the character by many actors on the speaking stage, on which the piece was one of the most successful offerings ever presented. Not only has Mr. Ray incorporated the best bits done by George M. Cohan and Victor Moore, in the part, but he has also embodied any new and convincing work created by the many stock actors who have at times appeared in the play.

"In response to the question whether I am going to pattern my interpretation of Kid Burns after the creator of the part, Victor Moore," said Mr. Ray recently, "I mean to make it plain that I am copying no one's performance. The silent drama necessarily calls for somewhat different expression of character. However, we are sticking very close to the original form of Mr. Cohan's play because for all purposes we think it best."

I have seen "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway" several times and each time I think a different actor in the part of Kid Burns. I can recall many good touches in each conception of the part and while my work may be reminiscent of one or more of those performances (it is bound to be because they more or less reflect Mr. Cohan's conception of the Kid) still after considerable thought on the screen possibilities of this character I am giving my own version of the part without losing any of Mr. Cohan's inimitable character drawing. It's a splendid part with all the elements the public likes. It is full of clean humor and, indeed, it has also its pathetic moments. Most important, however, is the fact that it provides me with a role which is due in line with the character drawings exhibitors prefer, and yet at the same time has a distinct novelty.

Local followers of the screen classics will have an opportunity to compare Mr. Ray's work with that of his predecessors in the role at the Liberty, beginning Wednesday, when "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway" comes to that theater at a First National attraction.

At the American.

J. Warren Kerrigan's latest Brunton production, "The Green Flame," an absorbing mystery play by the famous playwright and novelist, Raymond G. Hill, has been released by W. W. Hodkinson and will be given its premiere today at the American theater.

"The Green Flame" is excellently adapted to Kerrigan's dashing, romantic type. He is seen as a clever private detective who has been engaged by a jewelry concern to protect the "Green Flame," a priceless emerald, at one time a crown jewel of Russia. A ring of notorious crooks plot to steal the stone.

Kerrigan takes a position as clerk in the jewelry store and watches the general manager, whom he suspects of being a pawn of the crooks. The manager thinks the new employee a guileless youth and persuades him to steal the "Flame" for him. The detective gives him an imitation, follows him to the headquarters of the thieves, and effects a capture of the entire gang.

Industries Will Choose Locations After Holidays

Secretary Walker of the Chamber of Commerce, announces that he has received advices from the three large concerns with which he has been negotiating with reference to a location here to the effect that they have postponed action on the matter until after January 1.

He has received the assurance from them that when the matter of choosing locations for their industries is again opened the claims of the city of Ada will be given consideration.

One of the proposed new businesses is a glass factory for the manufacture of window glass; another is a large cement plant which is to be established in the state, and the other is a factory for the manufacture of lamp chimneys and glass containers.

Either of these concerns would be a good addition to the list of Ada industries and it is practically certain that at least two of them will be established here.

TO OUR FRIENDS— THE PUBLIC

We wish to express our appreciation for the kindness and patience of our customers during the recent interruptions of service, when an unfortunate accident to the pipe lines of the Gas company shut off our usual supply of fuel. We are making every effort to prevent interruptions of this nature, and expect to make such an occurrence as this an absolute impossibility in the future.

The transmission line now under construction between here and the big plant at Byng will in a few weeks, provide us with a constant source of energy, that will be independent of local plant conditions.

The pole lines over the city are heavily overloaded, due to the very rapid growth of the city and our inability to get apparatus and material during the past few months. Interruptions from this source will disappear as soon as the apparatus and material ordered can be installed.

We assure you that our every effort will be directed toward better service and a bigger and better Ada.
